

Annual Mother-Daughter

Tea and Doll Show Slated

Sandee Jones, current Miss Teen USA, will participate in award activities at the Annual Mother-Daughter Springtime Tea and Doll Show sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, Saturday, May 13 from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

The 1967 Miss Teen winner will be on hand to give recognition awards to winning contestants in the Doll Show. Prizes will be given for the best dolls entered in the several divisions of competition.

Included in the program is a Fashion Show, narrated by Faye Smith, fashion coordinator. Fashion models will consist of 25 members of the Torrance Recreation Department sponsored Co-Recreation Club, a group of seventh and eighth graders, plus a number of girls from the Torrance Parks and Playgrounds.

All junior misses are requested to bring their favorite doll. The dolls will be judged as to the oldest, prettiest, smallest, largest, cutest baby doll, most original foreign doll, most original costume most original doll, handsomest boy doll, most realistic doll and the funniest doll.

In addition, tea and crumpets will be served by members of the Co-Rec Club.

Location for the program is the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd. For further information, Daisy Mae Gabriel at the Recreation Dept. may be called.

SOUTH BAY

CITIZEN OF THE MONTH

A plea for help inspired heroic response from Jeffrey and Linda Shrader. They saved an entire family of children from their burning home.

Hearing a child cry that her house was on fire and her sisters were trapped alone inside, Jeffrey and Linda acted promptly and courageously. Together, they entered the burning building and rescued three small girls from the blaze that completely destroyed the interior of the house. Caring makes all the difference — it is the special human quality that spans danger and difficulty to help others.
